IAC Ch 10, p.1

701—10.9(421) Notice of penalty exception for one late return in a three-year period. The penalty exception for one late return in a three-year period will automatically be applied to a return or deposit form by the department if the taxpayer is eligible for the exception.

The exception for one late return in a three-year period is applied to the returns or deposit forms in the order they are processed and not in the order which the returns or deposit forms should have been filed.